

You're invited! Join us to learn about Mount Sinai's residency and T32 research tracks, where we are training academic leaders in psychiatry and neuroscience.

Are you looking for a psychiatry residency or fellowship that maximizes flexibility and has built-in protected time to pursue your research passions? Come to our virtual meet and greet to learn about the unique and pioneering research tracks at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai! You'll hear from the program directors (Antonia S. New, MD and Mercedes Perez-Rodriguez, MD, PhD), the department chair (René S. Kahn, MD, PhD), and the dean for academic and scientific affairs (Eric Nestler, MD, PhD), followed by breakout sessions with faculty and current trainees.

WHEN: September 21, 2021, 4:00-5:00pm
