If you have areas where you need more study, check out the AAMC's preparation resources, which offer the opportunity to get familiar with the online testing environment. Also, consider forming a study group at your school or with other applicants preparing for the exam. Talk to your prehealth advisor about resources you may have on campus or through your institution.

- Am I within one to two calendar years of wanting to apply to medical school?
 Yes No Unsure
- Have I spoken with my prehealth advisor? Does my advisor agree that I am ready?
 Yes No Unsure
- Have I applied to see if I qualify for the Fee Assistance Program?
 Yes No Unsure
- Do I feel prepared and ready to take the exam?
 Yes No Unsure

If you answered "no" to many of these questions, consult with your prehealth advisor about developing a plan to take the exam. Refer to aamc.org/mcat for information about creating a study plan. When you're close to registering for a test date, be sure to read the MCAT® Essentials for Testing Year 2021 for important information on scheduling, registration, test-day policies, and scoring (students-residents.aamc.org/mcatessentials).
