

The Choose Your Medical School Admissions Decisions Dashboard

The Choose Your Medical School (CYMS) Admissions Decisions Dashboard was developed for applicants to provide visibility into and streamline the process of organizing admissions decisions. It allows an accepted applicant to see the latest admission actions submitted to AMCAS by all medical schools where the applicant initially held an acceptance or alternate list offer. The dashboard can also be used as an aid to the CYMS tool when selecting “Plan to Enroll” and “Commit to Enroll.”

Accessing the CYMS Admissions Decisions Dashboard

- To view the CYMS Admissions Decision Dashboard, an applicant must first have access to the Choose Your Medical School (CYMS) tool in the AMCAS web application.
- The CYMS tool and Admissions Decisions Dashboard become available within the AMCAS web application when an applicant has at least one (1) current acceptance from a medical school. If an acceptance has not been received, the tool and dashboard will not be visible within the AMCAS web application.
- The CYMS tool and dashboard can be accessed in the AMCAS web application via the banner or “Quick Links” button.

Using the CYMS Admissions Decisions Dashboard

- Upon accessing the CYMS tool, you will be taken to the CYMS landing page (top of Figure 1), which houses the Admissions Decision Dashboard (bottom of Figure 1).
- The Admissions Decision Dashboard will show the current admission decision on file with AMCAS for all the schools where the applicant initially held an acceptance or alternate list offer.

Current Selection

AMCAS School of Medicine Plan to Enroll

January 28, 2022 - 03:35:00 PM EST RESET SELECTION EDIT SELECTION

Note: I have selected this medical school as the one I plan to attend in accordance with Protocol 9 of the Application and Acceptance Protocols for Applicants.

By selecting "Plan to Enroll," I am communicating to all schools at which I hold an acceptance that I have made a choice about the school at which I plan to enroll, and that I have withdrawn from my other acceptances, and hold only one acceptance. I understand that it is my responsibility to communicate with the other medical schools directly and to follow their school-specific processes to withdraw my application(s). I understand that I can continue to interview, remain on any waitlist, and receive additional acceptance offers. May 2nd, medical schools can see which applicants have selected "Plan to Enroll" at their institution.

Choose Your Medical School Admissions Decisions

The table below displays the current admission decisions on file in AMCAS for schools where you have held either an Acceptance or Alternate List during the cycle. The data below was provided to the AAMC by the medical schools. The AAMC cannot guarantee the accuracy or completeness of the data. Please contact the medical schools if there are any discrepancies with the information below.

Timeline

- Acceptance decisions are shown in real-time when submitted by medical schools to AMCAS.
- Alternate list actions are shown within 24 hours of submission by the medical school. The table refreshes overnight; any changes to same-day decisions may not be visible until the next day.

Admissions Decisions Glossary

- The following list defines the decisions that will be visible to applicants who can view the dashboard (refer to Figure 2).
- In order for data to be reflected within the dashboard, medical schools must submit their admissions decisions to AMCAS.
- If a communicated acceptance or alternate list decision is not visible for an applicant who is able to access the tool, the applicant should communicate the discrepancy to the school.
- Applicants should use the CYMS tool at the direction of the schools where they have applied and communicate directly with the schools to make sure they understand what actions to take as follow-up to their admissions decision.
