

The AAMC Professional Readiness Exam (AAMC PREview™)

The AAMC PREview™ professional readiness exam, formerly called the AAMC Situational Judgment Test, allows you to showcase your readiness to learn about issues related to professionalism in medical school to admissions officers. PREview provides medical schools with a more complete view of each applicant by assessing skills beyond the usual academic metrics, such as resilience, service orientation, ethics, cultural competence, and teamwork.

On the AAMC PREview portion of the Students & Residents website, you can:

- Learn about the eight pre-professional core competencies measured by the AAMC PREview™ exam
- Locate eligibility and registration information
- View all participating U.S. medical schools
- Prepare for the AAMC PREview exam with free resources
- Understand how the AAMC PREview™ exam is scored and how your score is shared with the medical schools
- Walk through an AAMC PREview™ Test Day, so that you know what to expect and what is expected of you

You can also contact the AAMC PREview™ Team via:
