Name of school/program that offers the MPH curriculum:

Most frequently, Duke medical students matriculate at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Gillings School of Global Public Health. They also may attend other schools of public health (U.S. or international) to which they gain acceptance.

Length of program:

4-5 years for the MD and MPH. In the 4-year option, the MPH may be completed during Duke's "Third Year Program for Research and Scholarship." In the 5-year option, a 2-year MPH may be pursued by taking a leave of absence.

Available Concentrations:

UNC MPH pre-approved concentrations for Duke students are:

- Health Care Leadership and Prevention
- Epidemiology
- Maternal and Child Health
- Global Health
- Health Policy
- Nutrition

Other schools' MPH Concentrations and other concentrations at UNC must be considered and approved by Duke Third Year Committee.

You may apply:

During 2nd year of medical school

MPH Tuition Policy:

Students are responsible for both Duke School of Medicine tuition and MPH tuition. Students can apply for financial aid and work study, if eligible.
