

Name of medical school:

Wright State University Boonshoft School of Medicine

Contact person:

Sabrina Neeley, PhD, MPH
Director, MD-MPH Program
Phone: 937-775-3316
sabrina.neeley@wright.edu

Name of school/program that offers the MPH curriculum:

Wright State University Boonshoft School of Medicine
Master of Public Health Program and Physician Leadership Development Program

Length of program:

5 years, with some courses taken in summer between 1st and 2nd year of medical school, followed by concentrated graduate term either between 2nd and 3rd or between 3rd and 4th years of medical school. Graduate term includes longitudinal clinical experience in the School of Medicine for continuity of clinical education during graduate studies.

Available Concentrations:

- Emergency Preparedness
- Global Health
- Health Promotion and Education
- Public Health Management

You may apply:

- While applying to medical school
- After acceptance to medical school, prior to matriculation
- During 1st year of medical school
- During 2nd year of medical school
- During 3rd year of medical school
- During 4th year of medical school

MPH Tuition Policy:

Students pay in-state graduate tuition and fees. Students are eligible for competitive scholarships and graduate assistantships.

Websites:

<http://medicine.wright.edu/education/physician-leadership-development-program/md-mph-degree-program>
<http://medicine.wright.edu/education/physician-leadership-development-program>