

Name of medical school:

University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health

Contact person:

Dipesh Navsaria, MPH, MSLIS, MD
Director, MD-MPH Dual Degree Program
Assistant Professor of Pediatrics
Phone: 608-262-7180
dnavsaria@pediatrics.wisc.edu

Mindy Schreiner, MS
PRIME Student Services Coordinator
Phone: 608-263-2298
Schreiner3@wisc.edu

Name of school/program that offers the MPH curriculum:

University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health

Length of program:

5 years

Available Concentrations:

- General Public Health
- Global Health Certificate

You may apply:

Students must apply and be accepted to both the MD and MPH programs separately. Students may apply for the MPH program during the MD application process or any time after beginning the MD program. The annual MPH application deadline is February 1st.

MPH Tuition Policy:

MD students pay graduate school tuition during their MPH year. Detailed information can be found at: http://registrar.wisc.edu/tuition_&_fees.htm.

Websites:

MD-MPH Program: <http://www.med.wisc.edu/education/md-mph/md-mph-degree-program/1039>

MPH Program: <http://www.pophealth.wisc.edu/mph>

MPH Program application: <https://mph.wisc.edu/Prospective-Students/Apply/MPH-Degree>