AL	Frederick P. Whiddon College of Medicine at the University of South Alabama	Students meet one-on-one with two interviewers. Interviews last 30 to 45 minutes each and are conversational. Interviews will be virtual for the 2025-2026 interview cycle.	Early Decision interview invitations go out on 9/6/2025 all other invitations begin in mid-September.	The interview day begins at 9:00 AM with a welcome, that includes information about financial aid as well as how the admissions process works, this is followed by their interviews at 10:00 AM and 11:00 AM. After the interviews, the applicants meet virtually with medical students for an informal information session that includes time for questions, after which they go to breakout rooms to meet in small groups with current students for more insight about the Frederick P. Whiddon College of Medicine from the student perspective. They then come back to the main room for a short closing session led by the admissions team.	Regional interviews are not available.	Interviews will be virtual for the 2025-2026 cycle.

AR	Alice L. Walton School of Medicine	Interviews are two 30 minute one-on-one interviews. Interviewers are blinded to MCAT performance, academic background, and biographic information. The rest of the interview day is designed for applicants to learn about AWSOM and ask questions.	Invitations will be sent beginning late July/ early August. Interviews will begin in early September 2025 and continue until February 2026.	The goal of the interview day at AWSOM is not only for us to get to know you, but also for you to get to know us and start picturing yourself as an AWSOM medical student. Interview day is organized to give select applicants a detailed introduction to the many exciting opportunities AWSOM offers medical students. By the end of the interview day, through engaging conversations with faculty and staff, you will understand what it will be like to be a medical student at AWSOM. Interviews are offered to select applicants by invitation. Additional information and instructions on selecting an interview day are sent via email.		All interviews will be conducted via Zoom.

TN	Thomas F. Frist, Jr. College of Medicine at Belmont University	Two interviews are included – a traditional open file interview and a structured closed file interview. Each interview lasts 30 minutes. The rest of the interview session is designed for applicants to learn about FCoM and ask questions.	We anticipate our first interview invitations being sent in August.	Candidates will be sent information to review and familiarize themselves with prior to the interview day. During the interview session, there will be plenty of time to ask questions and learn more about the topics important to you in selecting a medical school. Two interviews are conducted. One is a traditional open-file interview with a faculty member or member of the admissions committee lasting approximately 30 minutes. The second is a structured interview conducted by a member of the FCoM community that includes standard questions and the interviewer is blind to all application materials. This interview may feel similar to an MMI experience. As a newer school, the interview day is designed specifically to allow time for applicants to ask questions and learn more about areas of interest.	Regional interviews are not available. All interviews will be conducted virtually via Zoom. Accepted students will be invited to campus to visit.	FCoM will conduct virtual interviews for the 2026 admissions cycle. Applicants can expect information and instructions via email.
